INTRODUCTION

Development and prosperity of a nation depends to a large extent on the upbringing of its children. Their health and education are something the government considers its primary concern. Keeping this in view “The Odisha State Council for Child Welfare (OSCCW)” was established in the year 1959 for all round development of the children. It is registered under the provisions of the Societies Registration Act, 1860 and affiliated to the Indian Council for Child Welfare, New Delhi. It is one of the five statutory bodies functioning under the Department of Women & Child Development and Mission Shakti. Its bye laws were last amended in the year 1996.

The activities of the OSCCW is governed by the Odisha State Council for Child Welfare (Amendment) Rules, 1996. The Hon'ble Governor of Odisha is its Chief Patron and Hon'ble Chief Minister is the Vice Chief Patron. It is functioning under the aegis of Department of Women & Child Development and Mission Shakti with Hon'ble Minister, Women & Child Development and Mission Shakti as its Chairperson and Commissioner-cum-Secretary of the Department as its Member Director.

The District Councils for Child Welfare at the district level are implementing various projects and programmes of the Government of Odisha as well as of Government of India for the State Council. In its early years the State Council was the only organization working for the cause of the children. The Odisha State Council for Child Welfare has implemented several programmes during the year which are narrated in this report in brief.

1. AIMS AND OBJECTIVES OF THE ODISHA STATE COUNCIL FOR CHILD WELFARE

The objectives to achieve the cause of the children are set forth in the following guiding principles:

- (I) To undertake welfare work for children, adolescents and expected and nourishing mothers without any discrimination.
- (ii) To arrange proper education of children for their moral, spiritual, cultural and social development.
- (iii) To encourage aesthetic appreciation, artistic taste, constructive imagination and creativity amongst the children.
- (iv) To initiate, undertake and promote either directly or indirectly various schemes and projects for furtherance of Child Welfare.
- (v) To organize and maintain institutions for rehabilitation of orphan, abandoned and destitute children and for training of child welfare workers, volunteers and organizers.

- (vi) To publish and propagate the literature relating to child welfare.
 - (vii) To co-operate and/or collaborate with national and international organizations having similar objectives and to depute or receive representatives to and from such organizations.
 - (viii) To co-operate with other agencies, both Governmental and non-Governmental in the organization and administration of schemes and funds for furtherance of child welfare.
 - (ix) To fulfil the objectives and implement the policies and programmes of the Indian Council for Child Welfare.

2. FUNCTIONS (Extracts from OSCCW (Amendment) Rules, 1996)

For fulfilment of the main objectives specified herein before, the State Council can:

- (i) Hold and acquire land, building and other movable properties.
- (ii) Acquire, maintain and develop all places of interest for the purpose of child welfare.
- (iii) Receive grants, donations, fees, subscriptions and to manage and administer the funds of the Society.
- (iv) Manage otherwise dispose of or deal with property of any kind, which may be at the disposal of the Society.
- (v) Enter into agreements, contracts and such other arrangements in connection with and for the purpose of the Society.
- (vi) Raise and acquire funds and other assets for and on behalf of the Society.
